

HOLLOWSHORE CRUISING CLUB

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Hollowshore Cruising Club, founded 50 years ago downstream at the junction of Oare and Faversham Creeks, is now based at a fine new clubhouse within the Youngboats building at the head of Oare Creek.

We are always pleased to welcome new members!

What do we offer?

A full, year-round, social programme.

Friendly help and advice from many other boat-owners, some of whom have sailed the Atlantic, the Baltic, the Med and the North Sea, while others are content to potter in the Swale and Medway.

Social events such as suppers, barbecues, quiz evenings, and talks by members or visiting guest speakers.

Waiting Moorings out in the Swale off Harty, provided for use by members.

A Licensed Bar is open every Sunday lunchtime from midday until 3pm, with sandwiches or light snacks usually available, and run by members. The move may result in the bar being open at other times as well. Bar prices are competitive because there are no staff to pay but profits help keep subscriptions low!

Cruises are held in company each year in the local area, along the East Coast or across the Channel.

Membership of the Club is respected by other RYA-affiliated yacht clubs and will ensure a warm welcome for you wherever you go.

Our members come from all walks of life, ranging from professional seamen who recognise a sextant when they see one, to others who think a 'star sight' is a glimpse of Kate Winslett stepping out of a London cab!

We have members with modern yachts, traditional craft, motor cruisers, fishing boats and dinghies - or no boat at all.

Some will get satisfaction from an accurate landfall after a hard offshore sail, others revel in landing a decent cod off the Pollard or a quiet drink in a peaceful creek listening to wildlife.

HCC is a very relaxed and informal club but we have rules and observe nautical traditions. From day to day, the club is run by an annually-elected committee, led by the Commodore (the traditional post of chairman of a yacht club).

How can you become a member?

Just fill in the application form below, and ask existing members to propose and second you. If you don't know anyone, just drop in at the Club one Sunday lunchtime for a drink and a chat, and it will be done for you.

Your application with payment as stated over will be posted on the Club notice board until the next Committee meeting. After your acceptance you will receive a membership card with programme and be free to use the club and its facilities. The subscription is £45, whether you are a single member, a couple, or a family.

Less than 86p a week to belong to probably the best cruising club in the area!
